(a) The Corporation shall indemnify a Director, Officer, committee member, employee or agent of the Corporation, who was, is or may be named defendant or respondent in any proceeding as a result of his or her actions or omissions within the scope of his or her official capacity in the Corporation. However, the Corporation shall indemnify a person only if he or she acted in good faith and reasonably believed that the conduct was in the Corporation's best interest. In the case of a criminal proceeding, the person may be indemnified only if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. The corporation shall not indemnify a person who is found liable to the Corporation or is found liable to another on the basis of improperly receiving a personal benefit. A person is conclusively considered to have been found liable in relation to any claim, issue or matter if the person has been adjudged liable by a court of competent jurisdiction and all appeals have been exhausted.

(b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or on a plea of no-contest or its equivalent does not necessarily preclude indemnification by the Corporation.

(c) The Corporation shall pay expenses incurred by an officer, Director, committee member, employee or agent of the corporation in connection with the person's appearance as a witness or other participation in a proceeding involving or affecting the Corporation when the person is not named defendant or respondent in the proceeding.

(d) The Corporation may provide indemnification to the extent permitted by law. However, the Corporation shall not indemnify any person in any situation in which indemnification is prohibited by Paragraph 18.01(a).

(e) Before the final disposition of a proceeding, the Corporation may pay indemnification expenses permitted by the By-Laws and authorized by the Corporation. However, the Corporation shall not pay indemnification expenses to a person before final disposition of a proceeding if: the person is a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding brought by the Corporation or the person is alleged to have improperly received a personal benefit or committed other wilful or intentional misconduct.

(f) If the Corporation may indemnify a person under the By-Laws, the person may be indemnified against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees) actually incurred in connection with the proceeding. However, if the proceeding was brought by or on behalf of the Corporation, the indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding.

Procedures Relating to Indemnification Payments

18.02. (a) Before the corporation may pay any indemnification expenses (including attorney's fees) the Corporation shall specifically determine that law which indemnification is permissible, authorize indemnification and determine that expenses that are to be reimbursed are reasonable, except as provided in Paragraph 18.02(c) below. The Corporation may make these determinations and decisions by any one of the following procedures:

- (i) Majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who, at the time of the vote, are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding.
- (ii) Determination by special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors by vote as provided in paragraph 18.02(a)(i).

(b) The Corporation shall authorize indemnification and determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable in the same manner it determines whether indemnification is permissible.

(c) The Corporation shall pay indemnification expenses before final disposition of a proceeding only after the Corporation determines that the facts then known would not preclude indemnification and the Corporation receives a written affirmation and undertaking from the person to be indemnified. The determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification and authorization of payment shall be made in the same manner as a determination that indemnification is permissible under Paragraph 18.02(a) above. The person's written affirmation shall state that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under the By-Laws. The written undertaking shall provide for repayment of the amount paid or reimbursed by the Corporation if it is ultimately determined that the person has not met the requirements for indemnification. The undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the person, but it need not be secured unless required by the Board in the same manner under Paragraph 18.02 (a) above and it may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

not be less than the prescribed percentage of affirmative votes required for action to be taken under that clause.
